LAWS OF THE KINGDOM OF ANSTEORRA

These are the Laws of the Kingdom of Ansteorra. All prior editions of Kingdom Law are hereby repealed.

ARTICLE I: RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF THE CROWN

Section 1: Laws and Proclamations

- a. The rights, duties, and powers of the Crown of Ansteorra rest equally and jointly with the Sovereign and the Consort.
- b. The Word of the Crown, written or spoken, is law, subject to the Corpora and Bylaws of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc.
- c. There shall be three classes of law. These shall be edict, proclamation, and statute.
- d. Edict shall be defined as any lawful command of the Crown, and shall have the force of statute for the duration of the event at which it is proclaimed. Edict need not be published in the Kingdom newsletter. Edict may not conflict with statute.
- e. Proclamation shall be defined as any lawful command of the Crown, and shall have the force of statute for the duration of the reign in which it is proclaimed. Proclamation must be published in the Kingdom newsletter and signed by the Sovereign and the Consort. The published Proclamation must specify any portion of Statutory law that it effects.
- f. Statutory law shall be the continuing body of law in the Kingdom. To change statutory law, a new law must be published in the Kingdom newsletter and signed by the Sovereign, the Consort, and the Kingdom Seneschal.
- g. The law of the Kingdom shall be applied equally to all subjects of the Realm. In the event that a subject of the realm shall adopt an alternate persona, said persona shall be subject to all the laws and proclamations pertaining to his or her original persona.

Section 2: Other Powers

- a. All armigerous and non-armigerous titles, ennoblements, grants, awards, etc., recognized by the College of Arms are derived solely from the Crown, and may be awarded only with the prior consent of the Crown.

- b. The Crown reserves unto itself the right to grant official status to Incipient Branches and to formally bestow recognition of advancement and/or change in the official status of Colleges, Cantons, Shires and Baronies.
- c. The Crown reserves unto itself the right to banish, for just and stated cause, by proclamation, any person for a period of time up to the duration of their Reign.

ARTICLE II: RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF THE OFFICERS

Section 1: Offices of the Kingdom

- a. All officers of the Kingdom are required to be members of the SCA, INC., with immediate access to the official Kingdom newsletter and to maintain such membership while in office.

 - ii. Must have a member of the Chivalry speak for him/her prior to the Crown Lists,
- g. Any fighter entering the Crown Lists shall swear the following oath in the presence of the Crown of Ansteorra:

Laws of the Kingdom of Ansteorra

"I do declare my intent to compete in the Crown Lists of Ansteorra. I do swear that a gentle person has granted me favor and agreed to rule with me should I win. We do meet all the requirements for assuming the Crown, as set forth in the Laws of Ansteorra. I swear, for myself and my consort, that should I win the Crown Lists of Ansteorra, we will rule justly and to the utmost of our abilities, sparing no effort to fulfill our duties as King and Queen of Ansteorra. All these things I do swear by my honor."

h. Any person entering the Crown Lists who willfully and deliberately falsifies their qualifications under these Laws shall forfeit their right to participate in that Crown Lists.

ARTICLE VI: RIGHT OF SUCCESSION

Section 1: Forfeiture of the Coronet

- a. If it is found that the Crown Prince or Crown Princess did not meet the entry requirements of the Crown Lists, their Coronets are forfeit to the Crown.
- b. In the event that the Coronets are forfeit, the Crown Lists shall be refought as soon as possible. Every action will be taken to ensure that all those who fought in the original Tournament are contacted and are allowed to enter the Lists, save the person whose Coronet is forfeit.

Section 2: Order of Succession

- a. In the event that one member of the Crown is unwilling or unable to complete the Reign, the remaining member of the Crown shall assume all powers and duties of the Crown for the remainder of the Reign.
- b. Should the Crown be unable to complete their Reign, the Crown Prince and Princess shall assume the Crown forthwith.
- c. In the event that no Crown Prince and Princess have been determined, the previous Sovereign shall serve as Regent, with all powers and duties of the Crown, save the right to make awards, and the right to make changes to statute.
- d. The Regent shall take such steps as are necessary to hold a Crown Lists, with the victor of the tournament to assume the Crown within twenty-four (24) hours of his/her victory.

ARTICLE VII: COURTS

Section 1: Royal Audience

- a. Royal Audience is defined as the granting of the Crown's official attention to a subject.
- b. Petitions to the Crown for audience shall be presented via the herald in charge to the Royal Herald.
- c. Audience shall be granted solely at the convenience of the Crown.

Section 2: Royal Court

- a. The Royal Court shall be in session, at the pleasure and convenience of the Crown, at any event of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc.
- b. Any person with business before the Royal Court shall petition the Crown prior to the beginning of Court.
- c. Courts at which Awards conferring Rank or Precedence are bestowed, Officers Invested, or other matters of long term significance occur, must be conducted at Calendar Events.

Section 3: Courts of the Realm

- a. The Court of the Realm shall function as an advisory group to the Crown. They shall advise the Crown upon those matters the Crown may remand to them.
- b. The Court of the Realm shall be empowered, if the matters before it are sufficiently grave, to request the intervention of the Board of Directors of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. concerning these matters.
- c. The justices of the Court shall be at least 3 persons whom the Crown shall appoint.
- d. Those members of the Peerage who are not involved in the proceedings shall act as the advisors to the Court.
- e. In all other respects, the Court of the Realm shall be organized and conducted solely at the pleasure of the Crown.

Section 4: Court Events

- a. A Court is that portion of an Event wherein the formal business of the Crown and Kingdom is transacted.

- b. All Awards, Investitures, Proclamations, and Official Recognition must occur at a Court, and be proclaimed before the populace at an event which has been scheduled on the Kingdom Calendar, and announced in the Kingdom Newsletter.
- c. The Crown of Ansteorra may delegate the conduct of a Court as they see fit that they may better provide for the well being of Their Kingdom.
- d. Barons and Baronesses in fief may conduct Court in the lands that they hold on behalf of the Crown.

ARTICLE VIII: LOCAL BRANCHES

Section 1: General

- a. A local branch is a clearly defined geographical area which has sufficient paid members of the SCA, Inc. resident within its boundaries and otherwise meets the requirements for that specific type of local branch.
- b. All requests for any type of change in or advancement of status for a local branch should be submitted to the Crown and the Kingdom Seneschal and should follow the guidelines established by the Kingdom Seneschal's office.

Section 2: Baronies and Provinces

- a. A Barony or Province is a branch recognized by the Crown and the Board of Directors which fulfills the requirements listed below:
 - i. At least 25 sustaining, contributing, or patron members of the SCA, Inc.
 - ii. A full slate of warrantable officers, including a seneschal, herald, knight marshal, minister of arts and sciences, treasurer, chronicler and hospitaler.
 - iii. A name and arms which have been registered with the College of Arms.
 - iv. A record of at least two (2) years of regular activity including hosting events in all fields of Society endeavor.
 - v. In the case of a Barony, a candidate for Baron and/or Baroness acceptable to the Crown.

Section 3: Cantons

- a. A Canton is a branch recognized by the Crown, formed under the protection of a Barony, which fulfills the requirements listed below:
 - i. At least five (5) sustaining, contributing, or patron members of the SCA, Inc.
 - ii. A warrantable seneschal, herald and knight marshal. If there are no fighters in the group, a minister of arts and sciences may replace the knight marshal.

Laws of the Kingdom of Ansteorra

- iii. A name which has been registered with the College of Arms.
- iv. A record of at least six (6) months of regular activity.

Section 4: Shires

a. A Shire is a branch recognized by the Crown, formed independently of any other local branch, which fulfills the requirements listed below:

- i. At least ten (10) sustaining, contributing, or patron members of the SCA, Inc.
- ii. A full slate of warrantable officers, including a seneschal, herald, knight marshal, minister of arts and sciences, treasurer, chronicler and hospitaler.
- iii. A name which has been approved by the College of Arms, and arms which have been submitted to the Ansteorran College of Heraldry.
- iv. A record of at least one (1) year of regular activity, including hosting events.

Section 5: Institutional Branches

a. The Crown may recognize an Institutional Branch which will be, usually, centered around a university or military base, whose membership may fluctuate considerably from time to time, formed under the protection of a Barony or Province. Institutional Branches associated with colleges or universities shall be styled as a College. Institutional Branches associated with a Military Installation may be styled as a Stronghold or Port.

b. An Institutional Branch must meet the requirements listed below:

- i. At least five (5) sustaining, contributing, or patron members of the SCA, Inc. An Institutional Branch may be declared temporarily inactive due to reduced membership from time to time and then restored to active status again when its membership increases.
- ii. A warrantable seneschal, herald, and knight marshal. If there are no fighters in the group, a minister of arts and sciences may replace the knight marshal.
- iii. A name which has been registered with the College of Arms.

c. Membership in an Institutional Branch is based upon affiliation with the institution, rather than upon residence in a given area.

Section 6: Incipient Branches

a. An incipient branch is a local group (shire, canton, or institutional branch) which is just forming and/or is not yet stable enough to be granted official recognition by the Crown, which meets the requirements listed below:

- i. At least three (3) sustaining, contributing, or patron members of the SCA, Inc.
- ii. A warrantable seneschal, herald, and knight marshal. If the group has no fighters, a minister of arts and sciences may replace the knight marshal.

iii. A New Branch Application approved by the Kingdom Seneschal.

b. Anyone wishing to start a new branch should write to the Kingdom Seneschal to obtain a new group packet which contains the New Branch Application.

c. Incipient Branches will remain unofficial for such period of time as may be required for their specific types of branches, or longer if necessary, while the Kingdom observes them. After such time, if the group has proven itself to be active and stable, and if it meets the requirements for its specific type of branch (shire, canton or institutional branch), then it may petition the Crown to be granted official recognition, following the guidelines established by the Kingdom Seneschal's office.

These are the Laws of the Kingdom of Ansteorra, keeping to the tradition of the Laws created by Jonathon De Laufyson Macebearer and Willow de Wisp, issued by Lloyd von Eaker and Joselyn Allyn Reynard, and maintained by all the noble Crowns of Ansteorra.
