HERALDIC TINCTURES USED IN THIS BOOK

METALS

Or - gold (yellow)

argent - silver (white or gray)

COLORS

gules - red

vert - green

azure - blue

purpure - purple

sable - black

FURS

ermine - white with black spots ermineois - gold with black spots

paen - black with gold spots

PROPER - in its own natural colors

When blazoning arms, the tincture of the top (chief) and the viewer's left (dexter) are always named first. The background color is always named first if the arms consist of a "picture" on a solid field. On a quarterly field, the top left (dexter) section is named first, and will match the bottom right (sinister) section.

Everything described until a tincture is named is assumed to be of that tincture.

fimbriated - outlined

counterchanged - with colors reversed on opposite sides of some division line.

Right and left on arms are assigned as if on a shield being carried by the person.
